

Plan G Decision Checklist

The Medicare Dude™ Resource Library

Everything you need to decide whether Medicare Supplement Plan G is the right choice for your retirement healthcare.

Use this printable checklist as you compare your Medicare Supplement options.

Before You Begin

- I am enrolled (or will soon enroll) in Medicare Part A.
- I am enrolled (or will soon enroll) in Medicare Part B.
- I understand Plan G works with Original Medicare.
- I understand I need a separate Part D plan for prescriptions.
- I know my Medicare effective date.

Is Plan G Right for Me?

- I want predictable healthcare costs.
- I want nationwide access to Medicare providers.
- I travel frequently.
- I dislike provider networks.
- I want comprehensive coverage.
- I value financial predictability.

What Plan G Covers

- ✓ Part A hospital deductible
- ✓ Part A coinsurance
- ✓ Skilled Nursing Facility coinsurance
- ✓ Hospice coinsurance
- ✓ Part B coinsurance
- ✓ Part B excess charges
- ✓ Foreign travel emergency benefit (limited)

What Plan G Doesn't Cover

- Medicare Part B deductible
- Routine dental
- Routine vision
- Hearing aids
- Long-term custodial care
- Prescription drugs

Questions to Ask Yourself

- Do I expect frequent healthcare needs?
- Is budgeting important to me?
- Do I want maximum provider flexibility?
- Would I rather pay a higher premium than larger bills later?

Plan Comparison

Feature	Plan G	Plan N	HD Plan G
Monthly Premium	Higher	Lower	Lowest
Office Copays	None	Up to $20	After deductible
Part B Excess	Covered	Not Covered	Covered after deductible
Nationwide Access	Yes	Yes	Yes

Documents to Gather

- Medicare card
- Prescription list
- Physician list
- Pharmacy
- Current insurance cards
- Budget

Questions for Your Agent

- Is underwriting required?
- Is a household discount available?
- How has this carrier's rate history compared over time?
- Which pricing method is used?
- What companies are most competitive in my ZIP code?

My Decision

- Plan G appears to be my best choice.
- I want to compare Plan N.
- I want to compare High Deductible Plan G.
- I need personalized guidance.

Ready to Compare Plan G Rates?

William Gray
The Medicare Dude™
Independent Medicare Broker Since 1998

■ 386-871-3858

Schedule your complimentary Medicare review before enrolling.